

‘HAVE A VOICE’

In the spring of 2019 members of the ArtsCafe arts group, based at The Bradgate Mental Health Unit, worked with Lizzie Hewitt, and other artists, to produce this exhibition. The works are inspired by the theme of mental health service users having a voice, which should be listened to, and that stigma + discrimination around mental health should be a thing of the past. The ArtsCafe is open to both in-patients + out-patients at The Bradgate Unit.
